

Eleanor Baude-Phillips is a Fulbright English Teaching Assistant for the 2017-2018 school year. She graduated from Earlham College in May 2017 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English Literature with a minor degree in Creative Writing. She is the recipient of the 2017 Janice Beard Kem and Charles Kem Endowed Award for students with an intent of pursuing of a career in education. As a lifelong reader and lover of literature, she plans to work with students on reading, writing, and conversational skills throughout the duration of her time in the Czech Republic.